Citizen’s Police Academy:

A fourteen hour course designed to give residents a better understanding of the inner workings of the criminal justice system. Residents continue to be the eyes and ears of the police, this course only enhances their knowledge and ability in reporting criminal activity. The seven weeks of instruction are taught by members of the Great Barrington Police Department, Massachusetts State Police, Berkshire District Attorney’s Office, as well as representatives from the District and Juvenile Courts.